

KEEP SHOWING UP. They're still growing up.

You helped your child learn the importance of nutrition. As a teenager, they still need your guidance making healthy choices...this includes alcohol. Be sure you're sharing the risks of underage drinking.